

JOHN LYON'S CHARITY

Andrew Butler KC – DEPUTY CHAIR OF JOHN LYON'S CHARITY

After completing a Classics degree at University College Oxford, Andrew converted to law and is now a barrister practising at Tanfield Chambers in London, where he specialises in the fields of property and general commercial litigation, with a particular interest in professional negligence. He is head of Chambers' Business & Commercial Practice Group, and a member of both the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and the London Court of International Arbitration. A sports enthusiast, Andrew is also a qualified rugby referee.