

JOHN LYON'S CHARITY

Chris Llewellyn

Chris is the founder and Director of the CriSeren Foundation. His primary role is managing the activities of the Foundation. He strives to search for and support innovative social sector organisations with the potential to greatly increase their impact.

Chris is also a Trustee of Octopus Giving and the Trust for Developing Communities. Chris was also governor at Loughborough Primary in Brixton between 2011-18 including being Chair of Resources and Vice Chair. He is also currently a trustee of Brighton Welsh Male Voice Choir.