

JOHN LYON'S CHARITY

Serena Hedley Dent

Serena is an experienced legal professional and charity leader. As Deputy Clerk of the Mercers' Company, a City of London livery company, Serena is the executive lead for the Company's philanthropic work as a funder, housing provider, and corporate trustee of several charities. Serena originally trained as a solicitor becoming a Partner at Farrer & Co specialising in corporate and commercial work for charities, schools and sports governing bodies. As Clerk & Legal Advisor to the Provost & Fellows at Eton College, Serena played an important role in developing Eton's partnership work particularly with London Academy of Excellence and Holyport College. Serena has experience of serving as a school governor, charity trustee and member of Finance and Audit & Risk Committees.